

BIG STAKE RACE IS POSTPONED

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 19.—What promised to be a great contest for the $10,000 Paper Mills stake for 2:14 trotters at the Kalamazoo Grand Circuit meeting was postponed just after the first heat had been raced. It was announced to-night that the races would be continued one day longer as the result of to-day's storm. To-day's card will be finished to-morrow and Friday's races will be run off Saturday.

R. T. C., which last year earned his keep by drawing a delivery wagon, surprised everybody by winning the heat rather easily.

One heat was run off also in the 2:24 trot and the 2:14 pace. Anvil won the 2:24 trot in a log, while Game Maid had things pretty much her own way in the pacing event. All of to-day's events have been transferred to to-morrow's card.

2:24 trot—three in five heats, purse $1,000 (unfinished)—Anvil, b. c., by St. Vincent, won. Lady Willow, b. m., second. Lee Wilson, b. g., third. Best time, 2:11.2.

2:14 pace—three in five heats, purse $1,000 (unfinished)—Game Maid, b. m., by Gambrel, first; Leon Allen, ch. g., second. The Second, b. h., third. Time, 2:12.1.

2:14 trot—three in five heats, purse $1,000 (unfinished)—R. T. C., ch. g., by Prince March, first; Douglas McGregor, b. h., second; Peter the Second, b. h., third. Time, 2:12.1.

Danville, Va., July 19.—In one of the prettiest games of the season, Danville won the last and entire series from Richmond here this afternoon, 2 to 1. Verbout pitched for the visitors, and allowed ten hits, while Perryman, for the locals, who was in great form, let the visitors down with four hits. Danville is now in the .400 column, the first time in many weeks.

The game was a fast one, and was marked by some sensational fielding. Neither team was able to score until the fifth, when, after two were down, Schrader dropped a fly ball and Cowan, who had previously walked, scored on Priest's hit. The locals were held scoreless until the eighth, when the Red Sox broke into the run column.

Morgan got a hit, advanced a base on two outs, and scored on Jackson's two-bagger. In the ninth the game was won with one man out, when Cooper hit a slow one to second, but was caught between the bases. May-

BEEBE HURT HIS HAND

Final Rally Came in Ninth From Three Hits and Wagner's Error.

Philadelphia won to-day's game 5 to 1, and made a clean sweep of the series of four games with Pittsburgh. Adams pitched great ball until the ninth inning, when, after the home team tied the score and had men on third and second, as the result of three hits and an error by Wagner, he purposely gave Dooin a base on balls, and then forced in the winning run with a pass to Titus. Beebe was forced to leave the game in the second inning, when he had his right hand injured by a drive off Wilson's bat. Score: Philadelphia, 5; Pittsburgh, 1.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

The Goobers started in the box for the first time in the fourth inning he was relieved by Edfr. who was very effective, except in the fifth inning, when he was singled and came home on Bush's triple to right. Bruckmiller was almost invincible, only five scattering singles being made, and at critical times he pitched great ball, only allowing two of the Tigers to get as far as third base. TARS TAKE TWO FROM LYNCHBURG

Double-Header Dropped by Stocksdale's Outfit Gives Norfolk Big Lead.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., July 19.—Norfolk took both games of a double-header from Lynchburg to-day and made it two out of three for the series. Scores: 12 to 5 and 9 to 1. One of the largest crowds of the season witnessed the games, and at times enthusiasm ran high when some player pulled off an excellent bit of work. The Tar jumped on Brandon in the first inning of the game and finally drove him from the box in the fourth. He was relieved by Stocksdale, who was also hit hard. With the exception of the seventh inning, when four hits were bunched on him, Walsh pitched a good game. In the fourth inning Keating, of Lynchburg, and Staub, of Norfolk, got in a fight, and both were ordered from the field. Staub claimed that Keating hit him in the back with the "ball" rather than the bat for play. In the fifth inning Keating, of Lynchburg, and Staub, of Norfolk, got in a fight, and both were ordered from the field. Staub claimed that Keating hit him in the back with the "ball" rather than the bat for play. In the fifth inning Keating, of Lynchburg, and Staub, of Norfolk, got in a fight, and both were ordered from the field. Staub claimed that Keating hit him in the back with the "ball" rather than the bat for play.

Norfolk won the second game with the greatest of ease. Brooks was pitted against Finerman, and the Tar had much the better of the set-to, allowing but four hits. Brooks blew up in the eighth, and the Tars made a run. The feature of the game was a terrific drive by Woolum over the right field fence. The scores:
